A White Nationalist Love Story: Logan and Courtney Piercy

PlitD note: This dossier was compiled using publicly available information and was written in accordance with the publishing criteria of this platform.

Logan and Courtney Piercy are a Montana couple and members of the fascist group Identity Evropa. Our researchers examined posts from IE's recently leaked Discord server, "Nice Respectable People Group," and used publicly available records to determine that two users, "Green Nation" and "Mrs L," are in fact Logan and Courtney Piercy, formerly of California and now living in Montana with a new baby.

Logan changed his Discord username from Green Nation to Logan and then back again, and Courtney changed hers from “Mrs. L” to missliterallywho.

Before he was a member of Identity Evropa, now re-branded to the “American Identity Movement,” Logan wrote for the college paper at the University of Santa Barbara in 2010. Logan revealed that he studied statistics in school.

 @Deleted User someday I may get firefighter and emt trained, spending thousands of dollars and months of my full-time attention but that day is not today. Every other job seems to be a shit test as well. I'll keep applying but I won't expect much

Green Nation 9/30/2018, 9:26:44 PM
 @Wotan Clan I've heard stats is good. I got a stats degree but I never did the actuarial exams. Those of my friends who did the actuarial exams are making six figures a few years down the road

“Green Nation” posts in IE’s Discord server that he has a degree in statistics degree.

 @Trashboat If the Air Force investigated everyone with a security clearance for ties to the nationalists they would spend tens of millions more annually. With the AF inflated budget that is probably possible lol.

Green Nation also posts about the US Air Force quite a bit.

Both members of the Identity Evropa SoCal Chapter, Logan and Courtney began dating through Identity Evropa, and then got married:

 I was apolitical till about 25, 26, then became more interested in politics

Mrs. L 11/7/2018, 11:15:35 PM
 But no kids till 28

 @Green Nation and I met over the summer at an IE meetup I organized. On November 1st we got married 🍷 <:deye:359010025223618570> 🍷

In IE’s Discord server, Courtney talks of traveling with others to Unite the Right 2 in Washington D.C. in 2018, clarifying that she was likely one of the few fascists who showed up to Washington D.C. for Jason Kessler’s sequel to 2017’s deadly nazi riot in Charlottesville:

Mrs. L 8/30/2018, 1:39:08 PM
 I've only been to DC once, briefly, to pick up my husband (then bf) from the airport the night before Cville 2. We stopped at a fast food place to use the bathroom; it was like another planet.

Together, with another IE member who used the alias “Nemets” on Discord, they put up fliers at University of California at San Diego, California State University Fullerton and nearby at Muir College, San Diego.

It's clear that the Piercys shared hatred for the "other," a propensity to conspiracy theories, a mutual admiration for Andrew Anglin, the Daily Stormer, and Bash the Fash are their main attraction to one another.

Courtney Piercy's virulent anti-Black racism.

When Courtney talks about AWD, she means Atomwaffen Division, a paramilitary white nationalist group famous for murdering its own members.

Courtney too, supports Daily Stormer, identified here by the initials "DS."

Courtney Piercy and classism, dripping with contempt for the other.

So it's obvious they're neo-nazis from their membership in a neo-nazi organization and their sickening posts among that group. But who are they in "real life"?

It was easy to find their faces, given that they provided the photos themselves in IE's Discord server. Logan posted a cleanup day with fellow fascists. Conservation is important, especially if you're a former Eagle Scout, eh Logan?

Pictures of waste, the human and material kinds. You can see Logan in the blue button up on the left. Source

The happy couple, center.

The Piercy's discussed Courtney's pregnancy frequently in IE's Discord chats, since propagating the "white race" is extremely important to fascist creeps. Their son, William Lee Piercy, was born on 9/17/18, according to Discord posts made by the couple. Courtney and Logan posted photos of their son occasionally after he was born.

It was already evident from their posts that Logan and Courtney are a couple, and there were no other pregnant IE couples in the South California chapter at the time this photo was taken.

Soon after the baby was born in September of last year, the Piercy family dipped from Southern California and headed to Montana, where they currently live. They lived out of a motel at first, with Logan spending his time canvassing for Republican Senate candidate Matt Rosendale while Courtney mainlined Fox News.

We know from posts in the IE Discord server that Logan lied to his boss when he asked for time off to attend Identity Evropa's conference, "Leading our People Forward." A nazi who lies? How novel.

Logan got a new job in January of 2018 working the graveyard shift as a company driver. Our research crew is still looking for tips regarding Logan's job, so if you have any information, please contact us using the information at the bottom of this post. Logan also said in the "Nice Respectable People Group" server that he may be seeking a political job in the near future, so exposing and confronting his neo-nazi activism immediately is imperative.

The photos gave us intel about what the Piercy's look like, and other trails they left made it only too easy to connect their usernames and photos to their identities.

At one point, Logan posts in the IE chats that he "wrote a thing," and posted links to a website called "ecoamerican.us":

What's essential here is the name of his website. A whois search reveals the following information about the owner of EcoAmerican.us:

- Tech Name: Logan Piercy
- Tech Street: PO Box 10936
- Tech City: Kalispell
- Tech State/Province: Montana
- Tech Postal Code: 59904
- Tech Country: us
- Tech Phone: +1.4156549069
- Tech Email: logankpiercy@gmail.com

Gotcha, Logan. The best own is a self-own. This information verified Logan's identity, and provides further information about the couples' whereabouts as well as contact information, all of which was available in a search of publicly available records.

The Piercy's were living in a motel right after their move, according to Logan's posts in IE's Discord server, but we know they have recently moved into a house.

Courtney's protips for not getting doxxed. Didn't play out too well for her family.

You can read all of Courtney Piercy's posts in the "Nice Respectable People Group" as "Mrs. L" and "missliterallywho" here. You can read all of Logan Piercy's posts as "Green Nation" and "Logan" here.
